

Mergers & Acquisitions / Financial Analyst, Arlington, VA

Who are we?

Renaissance Strategic Advisors is one of the leading strategy and M&A advisory firms that supports premier firms in the aerospace, defense, space, intelligence and government services industry. Our strategy, market assessment, and M&A due diligence services are founded upon multi-disciplinary skills, judgment, and trust. Our M&A advisory team is focused on providing M&A/financial advisory services that complement and extend our differentiated strategic advisory offerings.

Why us?

The M&A analyst role is critical to supporting our client strategy and M&A advisory initiatives across the aerospace and defense sector. This is a unique opportunity to gain exposure to a spectrum of project work across forming M&A strategies, conducting strategic alternatives assessments of business portfolios, and executing buy-side and sell-side M&A for both strategic and private equity clients. We believe the scope of the role is unparalleled in the sector and offers substantial professional development across a range of disciplines. The M&A analyst position benefits from:

- Development of substantive Aerospace and Defense sector expertise and insight
- Opportunity to work with and gain exposure to leading client firms at the highest levels on impactful strategy and M&A projects
- Focus on professional development across both strategy and M&A advisory disciplines through exposure to senior partners with extensive backgrounds in strategy consulting, investment banking, policy making and industry
- Collegial culture that focuses on productivity, not hours; and
- A growing team with an entrepreneurial culture that provides significant scope for growth through internal progression

Who do we look for?

We recruit only top-tier talent. To be successful a candidate must demonstrate:

- An interest in the aerospace, defense, and government services sectors
- Finance experience, analytical skills, a comfort with complex quantitative analysis and a strong academic background
- Curiosity, energy, positivity and the ability to work independently or in teams; and
- Experience in investment banking, or strong corporate development/strategy or transaction services experience with an interest in transitioning

Analysts will join a close-knit team of professionals with decades of experience in their respective disciplines. The position will support senior staff and partners in the provision of a range of strategy and M&A advisory services, and progressively more client and transaction responsibility.
