Kenneth J. Krieg Joins Renaissance Strategic Advisors As An Executive in Residence

Arlington, VA – Aerospace and defense advisory firm Renaissance Strategic Advisors today announced the addition of Kenneth J. Krieg as an Executive in Residence. Pierre Chao, Managing Partner, commented “We are very fortunate to have Ken Krieg joining the Renaissance Strategic Advisors team. His judgment and wisdom, extensive national security expertise, and business acumen represent a great resource for our clients.”

Ken Krieg was the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics from 2005-2007. He was responsible for advising the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of Defense on all matters relating to the DoD Acquisition System, research and development, advanced technology, developmental test and evaluation, production, logistics, installation management, military construction, procurement and environmental security matters.

Before his appointment to USD (AT&L), Mr. Krieg served at the Department of Defense as Special Assistant to the Secretary and Director for Program Analysis & Evaluation. He joined the Department of Defense in July 2001 to serve as the Executive Secretary of the Senior Executive Council.

Prior to joining the Department of Defense, Mr. Krieg worked for International Paper, most recently as Vice President and General Manager of the Office and Consumer Papers Division. He had responsibility for the company's $1.4 billion retail, commercial office, and consumer papers businesses. During his 11 years with the Memphis, TN-based company, Mr. Krieg held marketing and sales positions and was actively involved in the merger of three major paper companies into International Paper. Before moving to industry, Mr. Krieg worked in a number of defense and foreign policy assignments in Washington, DC, including positions at the White House, on the National Security Council Staff, and in Office of the Secretary of Defense.

Mr. Krieg received his BA degree in history from Davidson College and his Masters in Public Policy from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.

He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of Aurora Flight Sciences, Twisted Pair Solutions and White Electronics. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of LMI and is a member of the SSA Board of DRS Technologies.

Managing Partner David Scruggs noted, “Ken Krieg brings a wealth of government and industry insight at a time when the aerospace and defense industry is facing an increasingly dynamic business environment. We’re very pleased to have him with us.”
