

Strategy and Management Consulting Paid Intern, Arlington, VA

Who we are

A high-end consulting firm focused on the defense, government services, and aerospace markets. Our team provides corporate strategy, market entry and forecasting, mergers and acquisitions, and competitive intelligence services to global corporate, private equity, and investment banking clients.

Why Renaissance Strategic Advisors

We are a 30-person industry-focused team that successfully competes against some of the largest firms in the professional services market. We offer competitive compensation and upward mobility for those who prove they can excel in a demanding yet invigorating work environment. At Renaissance Strategic Advisors, we take professional development and mentoring seriously, as the following examples illustrate.

- Each analyst is assigned a supervisor and is encouraged to select a mentor, guaranteeing that everyone receives individual grooming and partner interaction
- Analysts typically participate in client meetings in order to give them insight into our value delivery model
- We pride ourselves on our entrepreneurial and apprentice-style culture that enables analysts to learn from the firm's highly experienced group of senior consultants and senior advisors
- Everyone takes part in growing and developing the firm. This means you'll learn both advanced consulting tradecraft and how the "business" of consulting really works

Who we look for

We recruit at only top-tier undergraduate institutions. To be successful a candidate must demonstrate:

- A passion for the aerospace, defense, and government services sectors
- Strong analytical skills and comfort with complex quantitative analysis
- Curiosity, energy, positivity and the ability to work in teams and under dynamic conditions

Interns will join a group of multi-disciplinary senior consultants with decades of experience in their respective disciplines. They will work alongside talented analysts, associates and managers to support RSAdvisors' global client base. Daily activities will include primary and secondary source research, assembling and vetting budget and financial data and transforming it into usable information, as well as building client presentations. This high energy position will track, analyze and report on supply and demand-side issues that impact our clients' strategies and create value.

Critical requirements:

- US citizenship and the ability to be in the Washington, D.C. area from June to August
- Pursuit of a bachelor's degree in Economics, Engineering, Finance, General Business, National Security, Political Science, or Public Policy
- Internship, work experience, or demonstrated interest in the aerospace, defense, aviation or government services sectors - OR - with a top investment bank, private equity or venture capital firm
- 3.5 out of 4.0 minimum GPA
- Strong acumen in writing for business and dealing face-to-face with clients
- Application requirements include a CV/resume, cover letter, and unofficial transcript

If you wish to join the Renaissance Strategic Advisors team and believe that you have what it takes, please submit the documents listed above through your school's online recruiting page.
